EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20503

JUN 15 1988

The Honorable Robert Dole
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Mr. Leader:

The Administration requests that your Committee strike Section 621, relating to national security employee nondisclosure agreements, from H.R. 4775, the Treasury-Postal Service Appropriations Bill for FY 1989.

Section 621 is identical to Section 630 of the FY 1988 Treasury-Postal Service Appropriations Act contained in the FY 1988 further appropriations continuing resolution (P.L. 100-202). The provision purports to forbid the U.S. Government from using appropriated funds to implement or enforce certain agreements with Federal employees that they not disclose without authority classified information to which they gain access during their Federal employment.

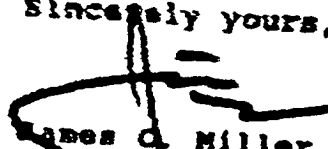

On May 27, 1988, in National Federation of Federal Employees v. United States, No. 87-2284-06, the United States District Court for the District of Columbia held that Section 630 of the FY 1988 Treasury-Postal Service Appropriations Act violates the Constitution. The Court stated:

"The statute [Sec. 630] impermissibly restricts the President's power to fulfill obligations imposed upon him by his express constitutional powers and the role of the Executive in foreign relations. Section 630 is, therefore, unconstitutional." (slip op., at 30)

Section 621 of H.R. 4775 is both unconstitutional and unwise. The President possesses the constitutional authority to require Federal employees who voluntarily assume positions of high trust bringing access to the Nation's most sensitive secrets to agree to keep those secrets. Such nondisclosure agreements are essential safeguards in protecting the national security.

We urge your Committee to strike Section 621.

Sincerely yours,

James C. Miller III
Director
